REPORT

FOR THE

YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31ST, 1877.

DURING the greater part of the year 1877 there has been no marked prevalence of Contagious Fevers in the metropolis. The customary autumnal outbreak of Enteric Fever was, however, more extensive than usual, and the rate of mortality high. During the latter part of the year Measles, also, assumed epidemic proportions. The statistics of the Fever Hospital are in close accordance with this general epidemic constitution of the year.

The number of patients admitted into the Hospital, as shown by Table I., was 629, and 94 remained from the previous year, making a total of 723 cases under treatment during the year: males, 265; females, 364. Of these, 575 were discharged recovered, 70 died, and 78 remained under treatment on the 1st of January, 1878.

These numbers show a falling-off as compared with the past two years, in 1876 the admissions having been 730, and in 1875, 710. This diminution in the number of admissions is almost entirely due to the gradual subsidence of the epidemic of Scarlatina, which began in 1874, and has continued to prevail, more or less, ever since. The admissions of Enteric Fever and Measles show an increase over those of the previous year.

Of the 629 admissions, 584 consisted of the various forms of Contagious Fever, and 45 were cases of other diseases.

The numbers of the different forms of Fever are shown by Table II.

Eight cases of Typhus were admitted: 4 males—of whom 3 recovered, and 1 remains under treatment—and 4 females, all of whom died. One female, who remained under treatment from the past year, was discharged recovered.

106 cases of Enteric Fever were admitted, and 18 remained from the past year, making a total of 124: males, 64; females, 60. Of these, 90 were discharged recovered, 15 remain under treatment; and 19 died—males, 10; females, 9. Rate of mortality of cases treated to their termination, 17·51 per cent.; or, excluding 4 cases who died within forty-eight hours of their admission, 14·28 per cent. The annexed Tables show the ages of the patients and the complications met with.

385 cases of Scarlatina were admitted, and 73 remained under treatment from the previous year, making a total of 458—males, 182; females, 276. 375 were discharged recovered; 52 remain under treatment. 31 died—males, 10; females, 21. Rate of mortality of cases treated to their termination, 7.63 per cent.; or, excluding 4 cases who died within twenty-four hours of their admission, 6.71 per cent.

The annexed Tables give the ages and complications of the cases of Scarlatina.

Mortality, 4.18 per cent.

Four patients admitted with Scarlatina developed Measles within ten days of their admission, and 3 patients convalescent from Scarlatina contracted Measles from them.

The cases of other contagious diseases comprised 9 of Mumps, 7 of Rubeola or German Measles, 3 of Erysipelas, and 1 of Diphtheria.

Table IX. gives the particulars of the 45 cases of disease other than Fever which were admitted during the year. Among these were 6 cases of Small-pox, one of which was sent to the Hospital in a moribund state, and died soon after admission. The other 5 were at once transferred to the Small-pox Hospital.

One male, suffering from Phthisis and general Tuberculosis, and one female, with debility, were under treatment on December 31st, 1877.

One of the nurses was attacked by Enteric Fever, and another had to undergo amputation of the finger for a poisoned wound. Both made good recoveries. Two of the servants had slight ailments.

Mr. Murphy, the Resident Medical Officer, was laid up by an attack of Rheumatic Fever, and has not yet been able to resume his duties.

Mr. Thurnam has succeeded Mr. Harvey as Assistant Medical Officer, and Mr. Henderson has undertaken the duties of Mr. Murphy during his illness.

The private wards set apart for patients of a higher position, who are able to pay for their accommodation, have been in less request this year than usual, owing, no doubt, to the subsidence of the Scarlatina epidemic. The number of admissions into these wards was 27, 20 of which were suffering from Scarlatina, 4 from Enteric Fever, 1 from Measles, and 2 from other diseases. These comparatively small numbers show that, notwithstanding the efforts of the Committee, the advantages of this department of the Hospital are still insufficiently known to the public. No deaths occurred among these patients.

Table X. gives the occupation and mode of admission of the patients. From this it appears that 66 were admitted from other hospitals, 22 from schools, and 35 from other charitable institutions. This transference of contagious cases from the wards of general hospitals, where there are no convenient means of isolation, forms a most important part of the work of the Fever Hospital; and it is the means of saving many persons—admitted into general hospitals for accidents and other diseases—from being attacked by fever when they are least capable of resisting its effects.

Thirteen cases were admitted by order of the sanitary authorities. 215 cases belonging to the poorer classes, but not in receipt of parochial relief, were admitted without the small payment required from the other patients. The Committee has to rely on the support of the public, to enable them to extend still more widely among this class the advantages of the Hospital, which is the only institution in London for the treatment of Contagious Fevers among persons who are not paupers.

CHARLES FINN, Secretary.

LONDON FEVER HOSPITAL,

LIVERPOOL ROAD, ISLINGTON.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

Objects of the Institution.

1. ALL poor persons (not being parochial paupers) and domestic servants of subscribers, labouring under contagious fever, and residing in the metropolis or its neighbourhood, shall be considered proper objects for this charity, and shall be admitted gratuitously, according to the next regulation. Domestic servants, employés in houses of business, and others similarly situated, and all inmates of other public charities (except medical hospitals), shall be admitted on the payment of such sum for each patient as the Committee shall from time to time determine.

2. On application for the admission of any patient to the Hospital, notice shall be immediately given to the resident medical officer, and the person after inspection may be admitted by an order signed by him, or on a certificate signed by any physician, surgeon, or apothecary, stating the disease to be fever of a contagious nature, or likely to become such. The order or certificate shall entitle the patient to admission, subject to the provisions contained in Rule No. 1, unless the case shall be deemed an improper one by the resident medical officer, or unless the Hospital shall be full.

Governors.

3. All subscribers of one guinea annually, or of ten guineas in one donation, shall be governors of this Hospital.

General Meeting and Election of the Committee.

4. A general meeting of the governors, of which ten days' previous notice must be given in three morning newspapers, shall be held every year, on the second Friday in February, or as near thereto as may be convenient, for the purpose of approving or rescinding the proceedings of the Committee for the preceding year ; for receiving an annual report of the state of the funds ; and for electing a president, vice-presidents, treasurer, honorary secretary, and other members of the Committee for the ensuing year. At all meetings connected with the affairs of the Hospital, a simple majority of the governors present and voting shall bind the minority ; and in case of equality of votes, the chairman shall have an additional vote or casting vote.

5. A special general meeting of the governors may at any time be called by direction of the president or of the Committee ; or on the requisition of any twelve governors, provided the requisition be made in writing to the Secretary, and the purpose for which the same is summoned be published in three morning newspapers at least ten days prior to the next meeting ; but the proceedings of such special general meeting, though acted upon pro tempore, shall not be deemed final until confirmed by another general meeting.

6. No new rule or law shall be made, nor shall any existing rule or law be repealed or altered, until determined upon at a general meeting by a majority of governors present and voting, and until confirmed at a subsequent general or special meeting.

7. The presence of seven governors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at general meetings, and without that number no business shall be transacted.

8. At the annual general meeting, a Committee for the management of the Institution shall be elected, consisting of the president, the vice-presidents, the treasurer, honorary secretary, and twenty-four other governors ; four of which governors shall not have been members of the preceding Committee. They shall meet on the last Friday, or on such other day of every month as the Committee may appoint ; and three members shall be necessary to constitute a meeting, and to transact business. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the direction of the treasurer, or by any three members of the Committee, on giving at least three days' notice of the same, and specifying the business for which it is called.

9. The Committee shall have authority to appoint sub-committees, whose reports shall be submitted to their consideration ; they shall elect all the officers, except the physicians of the Hospital and the honorary secretary, who shall be elected by the governors at large ; and, with the assistance of the medical officers, shall form regulations and bye-laws for the internal management of the Hospital.

10. The resolutions of one meeting of the Committee shall not be rescinded by another, unless it be specially summoned for that purpose. All accounts, except such small sums as may be comprised under the item of petty cash, shall be submitted to the Committee at the monthly meetings, after having been duly examined by the secretary, the resident medical officer, and the house-directors ; and such accounts, if approved, shall be paid by cheques payable to order, signed in Committee by the chairman and one other member, or, in case a Committee cannot be formed, by two of the house-directors, and in all cases countersigned by the secretary. All the larger articles of supply, when practicable, shall be furnished by contract made after public tender. No expenditure for repairs of premises or any machinery shall be incurred, without a written order from the Committee or house-directors.

11. The Committee shall yearly publish a report of the state of the Hospital.
